League of Women Voters to Celebrate 88th Birthday

The League of Women Voters of Wisconsin, will celebrate its 88th birthday on February 14, with a renewed commitment to help Americans get involved in their democracy in 2008. LWWWI celebrates its birthday concurrently with the League of Women Voters of the United States.

“Today we honor the tradition and impact of nearly ninety years of advocacy and education,” said Wisconsin League president Melanie Ramey. “I am proud of the vast accomplishments of our volunteers. I wish our many members and supporters a “Happy Birthday!”

“In Wisconsin there is a lot of energy right now, with the national Presidential Primary and a special session of the state Legislature focused on reducing the influence of money in politics. Our members carry on the legacy of the League, working for clean elections and active citizen participation.”

The state League encourages voters to go to their website, www.lwwwi.org, for information on voting, candidates’ answers, news about League events, and information on joining and supporting our nonpartisan voter education and advocacy efforts.
